CLIMATE CHAMPION AWARD

Longtime Old South member Bradford Swing is the inaugural recipient of the congregation’s Climate Champion Award, presented today by members of the Climate Crisis Task Force. Brad retired in June 2024 as the Director of Energy Policy and Programs for the City of Boston, where, for 29 years, he worked tirelessly to make Boston one of the cleanest, greenest, energy efficient cities in the US. Brad transformed Boston’s energy production and built its green building program, ensuring that environmental sustainability did not come at the expense of equity. Under Brad’s leadership, Boston was named the most energy efficient city in the US from 2013–2017. In 2015, Brad represented Boston at the Paris Climate Conference, where the city was recognized with a “Smart Cities and Smart Community Engagement” award. Renew Boston Trust, a city program Brad designed that conducts energy audits and invests in conservation upgrades for municipal buildings, is an important tool for Boston to reach its carbon neutrality goals. We thank Brad for his commitment to the City of Boston’s green infrastructure and congratulate our 2025 Old South Climate Champion!

WELCOME TO OLD SOUTH CHURCH

Welcome to Old South Church in Boston. We are a progressive Christian church first gathered in 1669. The Church played a significant role in early American history. Today, Old South Church continues to serve as a sanctuary in the city of Boston.

NEW AT OLD SOUTH?

Welcome! We are so glad you're here! Please take a moment to fill out a friendship pad so that we can be in touch with you. If you have any questions or would like to talk to a minister to learn more about the church, contact Associate Minister Ashley Popperson at ashley@oldsouth.org.

Children are welcome in all aspects of worship. We also offer childcare from 8:20am-12:30pm every Sunday and Church School at 10am. For questions about our children's and family ministries, email children@oldsouth.org.

For LARGE print bulletins or children's bulletins, please ask an Usher.

An accessible, single-stall restroom is available near Reception. More restrooms are available, ask at the reception desk.

HEARING ASSISTANCE

Our hearing loop works directly with devices equipped with a "T-Coil." The sound is best if you sit further inside the pews, away from the aisles. The loop does not work in the upper galleries. If you would like to borrow a device paired with our system, please ask an usher.

GARAGE PARKING VALIDATIONS

We have arrangements for discounted parking with two nearby garages for Old South Church worship or church business (excluding weddings & concerts). For more information check out www.oldsouth.org/your-first-visit or see the front desk.

A NOTE ON THE INCLUSIVE DIMENSIONS OF GOD'S GRACE

Old South Church in Boston, in the name of its host, Jesus Christ, and in the spirit of Christ's invitation carved into the stone of this church's portico, "Behold I Set Before You an Open Door," welcomes all who seek to know God. Following the One who we believe is Sovereign and Savior, we affirm that each individual is a child of God, and recognize that we are called to be like one body with many members, seeking with others of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, age, gender, marital status, physical or mental ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression to journey together toward the promised realm of God. We invite everyone to join in the common life and mission of our reconciling community through participation and leadership in this congregation, and by fully sharing in the worship, rites and sacraments of this church. As we all move forward with the work of this church, we commit ourselves to making justice and inclusivity a reality in this congregation and in the world. On the threshold of Christ's open door, we rely upon the healing, unconditional nature of God's love and grace to be our help and guide.

THEOLOGICAL BOOK GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW BOOK

The Asylum Seekers: A Chronicle of Life, Death, and Community at the Border, by Christina Rathbone.

4-6 week series beginning Monday, May 5, via Zoom

Contact Don Wells at granwell@comcast.net to be added to the waitlist

Rathbone, an Episcopal Priest, and personal friend to several of us, weaves an intimate portrait of both individuals and the community being formed under a bridge between Mexico and the United States. In makeshift tents where families wait to see if they can cross the border, she finds hope and faith despite horrendous conditions. While the book group is now full, I urge Old South members to read the book on their own and see that many of the stories being told about those seeking access to our country are essentially lies. Rathbone experiences these seekers as families and individuals fleeing extreme violence in their home towns. They are simply seeking a better life. But also, please let me know if you are interested in joining the group should a sudden opening occur. That does happen! It will be a 4-6 week series beginning Monday, May 5th, via zoom.

GREEN TIPS: Working In Your Spring Garden

Tips from Texas A&M Alum Barry Johnson. More at tinyurl.com/OSCspringgardentips

- Bury some treasure: When his children were small, Johnson planted crops that grew mostly under the soil. "I'd let my kids dig them up to harvest, and they couldn't have imagined that so many potatoes would be just under the surface." When you reach for seeds this year, consider sharing the surprises of tubers and other root vegetables.
- Prune for a garden boon: Pruning is tricky; it depends on both the weather and the plant in question. "I tell people to prune when it's colorful and the weather is mild, like in the spring or fall." Avoid pruning in the winter, because a warm spell after a winter prune could trigger the plants to start growing before the weather is right.
