Take heart: it is not too late to build a better world.

GATHER

PRELUDE	Aria from the Concerto Grosso No. 12	G. F. Händel
---------	--------------------------------------	--------------

*HYMN 12	I Sing the Mighty Power of God	ELLACOMBE
----------	---------------------------------------	-----------

*CALL TO WORSHIP adapted from Henry Emerson Fosdick	Kate M. Nintcheu
--	------------------

O God, come to us, we pray thee with the resources of thy power, that we may be strong within.

We ask not for easy lives,
but for adequacy.

We ask not to be freed from storms,
but to build our house on rock that will not fall.

We pray not for a smooth sea, but for a stout ship,
a good compass, and a strong heart;

In the name of him who faced enmity and death
without flinching,

Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

Please greet those around you, wishing them “peace” or “the peace of Christ.”

Indicates all who are able may stand*

SUNG RESPONSE

Two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. The first staff contains the lyrics "Come, bring your bur-dens to God; come, bring your bur-dens to God;" and the second staff contains "come, bring your bur-dens to God, for God will al-ways be there." The melody is simple and repetitive, using quarter and eighth notes.

Come, bring your bur-dens to God; come, bring your bur-dens to God;
come, bring your bur-dens to God, for God will al-ways be there.

Text: South African; English trans. Barbara Clark, Mairi Munro, and Martine Stemerick, 2008

Tune: WOZA NOMTHWALO WAKHO,

WELCOME TO OLD SOUTH CHURCH

Welcome to Old South Church in Boston. We are a progressive Christian church first gathered in 1669. The Church played a significant role in early American history. Today, Old South Church continues to serve as a sanctuary in the city of Boston.

NEW AT OLD SOUTH?

Welcome! We are so glad you're here! Please take a moment to fill out a friendship pad so that we can be in touch with you. If you have any questions or would like to talk to a minister to learn more about the church, contact Associate Minister Ashley Popperson at ashley@oldsouth.org.

Children are welcome in all aspects of worship. We also offer childcare from 8:20am-12:30pm every Sunday and Church School at 10am. For questions about our children's and family ministries, email children@oldsouth.org.

For LARGE print bulletins or children's bulletins, please ask an Usher.

An accessible, single-stall restroom is available near Reception.
More restrooms are available, ask at the reception desk.

HEARING ASSISTANCE

Our hearing loop works directly with devices equipped with a "T-Coil." The sound is best if you sit further inside the pews, away from the aisles. The loop does not work in the upper galleries. If you would like to borrow a device paired with our system, please ask an usher.

GARAGE PARKING VALIDATIONS

We have arrangements for discounted parking with two nearby garages for Old South Church worship or church business (excluding weddings & concerts). For more information check out www.oldsouth.org/your-first-visit or see the front desk.

A NOTE ON THE INCLUSIVE DIMENSIONS OF GOD'S GRACE

Old South Church in Boston, in the name of its host, Jesus Christ, and in the spirit of Christ's invitation carved into the stone of this church's portico, "Behold I Set Before You an Open Door," welcomes all who seek to know God. Following the One who we believe is Sovereign and Savior, we affirm that each individual is a child of God, and recognize that we are called to be like one body with many members, seeking with others of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, age, gender, marital status, physical or mental ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression to journey together toward the promised realm of God. We invite everyone to join in the common life and mission of our reconciling community through participation and leadership in this congregation, and by fully sharing in the worship, rites and sacraments of this church. As we all move forward with the work of this church, we commit ourselves to making justice and inclusivity a reality in this congregation and in the world. On the threshold of Christ's open door, we rely upon the healing, unconditional nature of God's love and grace to be our help and guide.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEWBURY STREET CLOSED ON SUNDAYS

10am—8pm, through September 21, see above map to help you plan, tinyurl.com/OpenNewbury2025 for more info

Whether you're shopping, dining out, or just going for a walk, pedestrian-only days on Newbury Street are a Boston summer staple. Newbury Street is a mile-long, eight block stretch of shops, salons, galleries and restaurants. This famous Boston street becomes a pedestrian-only walkway on Sundays in the summer. The street is closed to vehicles to allow pedestrians the opportunity to use the full width of the street, from Berkeley Street to Massachusetts Avenue.

SPECIAL SANCTUARY TOUR

Sundays July 13 and August 24, 10am, meet Kathleen in the Sanctuary

Come explore Old South's sanctuary with member Kathleen Simone on this interactive tour. Learn about the history of the building's art and architecture (what does Gothic Revival mean, anyway?) and how to "read" historic spaces and art (did you know that stained glass artists were story tellers?).

MONDAY NIGHT SMALL GROUP READS THE BOOK OF JOY

Meet in person one day only July 28, 7pm, Crawford Library

Join The Monday Night Small Group for a summer read of The Book of Joy. We will discuss the Book of Joy, with a subtitle of Lasting Happiness in a Changing World. It is a discussion with and between His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Archbishop Emeritus of Southern Africa Desmond Tutu, with Douglas Abrams. These two incredible figures from very different worlds, share what they have learned and witnessed in their long lives. Every day is a new opportunity to begin again. Every day is your birthday. May this book be a blessing for all sentient beings, and for all of God's children—including you. This is written as a conversation and reads quickly. If you would like to join us, email Jennifer Keenan at

UCC GENERAL SYNOD

Every two years, General Synod brings together faithful members of the United Church of Christ for worship, fellowship, public witness, and engaging with the business of the church. From July 11-15, thousands of UCCers from across the country are gathering for General Synod 35 in Kansas City, Missouri. Among them are members of Old South's clergy, lay leaders, and youth group. Please pray for them as they gather. For more information see generalsynod.org/

CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND OUTREACH

THE WEEKLY PUSHBACK - Supporting Healthcare through Fenway Health

Go to www.fenwayhealth.org to learn more about their mission, history, and services

Have other weekly action ideas? Email outreach@oldsouth.org.

Bad news comes fast and furious these days--for trans folks, for immigrants, for the disabled. But all across the country, people of goodwill are pushing back. Every week, Old South's Christian Service and Outreach Committee will be giving to an organization or individual who is serving the gospel in a world of bad news. Fenway Health was a pioneer in providing testing and care for individuals facing HIV in the 1980s. To this day, they have been on the cutting edge of research and care for the LGBTQ community across the world. Unfortunately, they have been targeted as a result. They have lost over $3M in federal funding since the beginning of the year and major research initiatives have had to close. As they grapple with challenges and next steps, Old South is donating $1,000 in solidarity with their continued good work.

THEOLOGICAL BOOK GROUP SUMMER READ

There is no sign up! Just get a copy of Liz Walker's book

"No One Left Alone: A Story of How Community Helps Us Heal" and read.

In September, there will be a one time hybrid session (date TBD) for a discussion of the book.

Questions? Contact Don Wells granwell@comcast.net.

Old South's Theological Book Group is having a 'Summer Read', and it is open to all! The book: Liz Walker's No One Left Alone: A Story of How Community Helps Us Heal. Many will remember her as Boston's first woman and first Black news anchor. After 19 years in broadcasting she went to seminary and became a Presbyterian Minister. Her book is a story of helping her congregation develop 'soft spaces' for people to gather for prayer and a renewed sense of community. This was especially important for those who had experienced grief and loss within the Black community. As those spaces were created, she helps distinguish between just 'hearing' and really 'listening'. She invites her readers to consider where those 'soft spaces' are in the context of their own lives. It is a book worth reading!

GREEN TIPS: AVOIDING MICROPLASTICS - Choose Natural Fibers

Indoor environments with heavy use of synthetic materials (like carpets, upholstered furniture, or window dressings) can have higher microplastic concentrations in their dust or surrounding air, leading to higher rates of exposure. Microfibers are constantly shed from synthetic clothing and textiles due to abrasion during wear and laundering. Alternatives for clothing and home textiles include cotton, linen, bamboo, silk, and wool; note that sometimes synthetic fibers are blended with natural fibers, so check tags carefully. Learn more at tinyurl.com/nrdcmicroplasticthreat.
