NEW DIMENSIONS

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Adapted from John Jea, “Desire to Worship”

Justin Tyler Dickerson

Lord we come before thee now,
at thy feet we humbly bow:
Oh! do not our suit disdain;
shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

Grant that all may seek and find thee, most merciful and kind.
Heal the sick, the captive free;
let us all rejoice in thee!

Indicates all who are able may stand*

In thine own appointed way,
Lo! we meet thee, here we stay;
Lord, we know not how to go,
till a blessing thou bestow.

Lord, on thee our souls depend;
in compassion now descend:
fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
tune our lips to sing thy praise.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

Please greet those around you, wishing them “peace” or “the peace of Christ.”

I will go, I shall go to see what the end will be.*

Sometimes I’m up, sometimes I’m down,
sometimes my soul feels heavenly-bound.

If you get there before I do
tell all my friends I’m coming, too.

OFFERTORY AND CELEBRATION OF PLEDGES

How Can I Keep from Singing

Gwyneth Walker, arr.

My life flows on in endless song; above earth's lamentation,
I hear the real (though distant) song that hails a new creation.
Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing;
it sounds an echo in my soul — how can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest loudly roars, I hear the truth, it's living!
What though the darkness round me close, songs in the night it's giving!
No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging;
since I believe that love abides, how can I keep from singing?

La la la la...

When tyrants tremble when they hear the bells of freedom ringing;
when friends rejoice both far and near— how can I keep from singing?
In prison cell, in dungeon dark, our thoughts to them are winging.
When friends hold courage in their heart, how can I keep from singing?

La la la la...

ABOUT TODAY'S CALL TO WORSHIP

John Jea (1773-c.1817), whose words form our Call to Worship this morning, was a freedman, mariner, preacher and author of two books. According to his autobiography, The Life History and Unparalleled Sufferings of John Jea, the African Preacher, he was born in the town of Calabar (now southeastern Nigeria) in 1773. Along with his family, he was captured and enslaved as a child, and taken to New York City, where he was sold to Oliver and Angelika Triebuen.

As a teen, John searched for a faith that made sense to him, and found Christianity, getting baptized around the age of fifteen. He became emancipated as a young adult, and spent the rest of his life preaching and sharing his faith with others. His preaching and autobiography focused on religious reasons for abolition, arguing that slavery was morally wrong and contrary to Christian faith.

Our Call to Worship this morning comes from his second book, Collection of Hymns. You can read more about John Jea's life in a number of works, including Black Itinerants of the Gospel: The Narratives of John Jea and Geroqe White, by Graham Russell Hodges.

A NOTE ON THE INCLUSIVE DIMENSIONS OF GOD'S GRACE

Old South Church in Boston, in the name of its host, Jesus Christ, and in the spirit of Christ's invitation carved into the stone of this church's portico, "Behold I Set Before You an Open Door," welcomes all who seek to know God. Following the One who we believe is Sovereign and Savior, we affirm that each individual is a child of God, and recognize that we are called to be like one body with many members, seeking with others of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, age, gender, marital status, physical or mental ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression to journey together toward the promised realm of God. We invite everyone to join in the common life and mission of our reconciling community through participation and leadership in this congregation, and by fully sharing in the worship, rites and sacraments of this church. As we all move forward with the work of this church, we commit ourselves to making justice and inclusivity a reality in this congregation and in the world. On the threshold of Christ's open door, we rely upon the healing, unconditional nature of God's love and grace to be our help and guide.

WINTER WALK TO END HOMELESSNESS

Sunday, February 8, 10am

Questions? Email Kat Woodard at kat@oldsouth.org

Old South is once again participating in the Winter Walk to End Homelessness, a two-mile walk around Boston Common during the coldest month of the year. Winter Walk raises both awareness and critical funds to support organizations working to prevent homelessness and provide care, accompaniment, and resources for our unhoused neighbors. This year, Old South will be walking as part of the common cathedral team and all funds raised by individual Old Southerners go directly to common cathedral commoncathedral.org. To further amplify this impact, an anonymous donor from Old South has generously committed to matching up to $5,000 in individual donations! To register for the walk, visit tinyurl.com/OSC2026WinterWalk and select "Walk With Us" if you would like for the proceeds from your registration fee to go to our partners at common cathedral. If the registration cost would be a financial barrier for you, you are welcome to use Old South's sponsor code: select "I have a promo code" and enter OSC26. unable to walk but would still like to support this important work, you can donate directly to the common cathedral's Winter Walk team here: tinyurl.com/commoncathedralWinterWalk.
