*CALL TO WORSHIP

John M. Edgerton

At the break of day and at the edge of evening, God goes out:
Calling people into the vineyard of justice, mercy, and grace.
We come by different paths and at different hours;
And still, God gathers us as one.
In God's vineyard, no hierarchy of belonging is known:
All are made equal by God's abundant grace.
Come, let us worship the God whose generosity exceeds all keeping of account.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

Please greet those around you, wishing them "peace" or "the peace of Christ."

Indicates all who are able may stand*

PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

PRAYER RESPONSE

A Thousand Different Colors

Tim Harbold, arr.

The silver-white waves wash up and bathe my feet,
I look out but cannot see the other side.
The surface water sways, azure, gold and green,
glittering the full spectrum of light.
The sea is not blue, the sea is like you:

A thousand different colors, moving all together,
more beautiful than words.
It's a symphony of sound singing subtly but loud,
more beautiful than words.

The sun goes down and disappears,
the clouds wave their goodbyes,
in a masterpiece of light and melody.
Wind whispers in my ears and sings a lullaby,
as seagulls call and surf the evening breeze.
The sky is not blue, the sky is like you:

A thousand different colors...

How great is the expanse of all you are to me,
I try, but still I can't describe all your diversity.
How you love, how you lead: like the sky, like the sea.

A NOTE ON THE INCLUSIVE DIMENSIONS OF GOD'S GRACE

Old South Church in Boston, in the name of its host, Jesus Christ, and in the spirit of Christ's invitation carved into the stone of this church's portico, "Behold I Set Before You an Open Door," welcomes all who seek to know God. Following the One who we believe is Sovereign and Savior, we affirm that each individual is a child of God, and recognize that we are called to be like one body with many members, seeking with others of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, age, gender, marital status, physical or mental ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression to journey together toward the promised realm of God. We invite everyone to join in the common life and mission of our reconciling community through participation and leadership in this congregation, and by fully sharing in the worship, rites and sacraments of this church. As we all move forward with the work of this church, we commit ourselves to making justice and inclusivity a reality in this congregation and in the world. On the threshold of Christ's open door, we rely upon the healing, unconditional nature of God's love and grace to be our help and guide.

WINTER WALK TO END HOMELESSNESS

Sunday, February 8, 10am

Questions? Email Kat Woodard at kat@oldsouth.org

Old South is once again participating in the Winter Walk to End Homelessness, a two-mile walk around Boston Common during the coldest month of the year. Winter Walk raises both awareness and critical funds to support organizations working to prevent homelessness and provide care, accompaniment, and resources for our unhoused neighbors. This year, Old South will be walking as part of the common cathedral team and all funds raised by individual Old Southerns will go directly to common cathedral commoncathedral.org. To further amplify this impact, an anonymous donor from Old South has generously committed to matching up to $5,000 in individual donations! To register for the walk, please visit <https://tinyurl.com/OSC2026WinterWalk> and select “Walk With Us” if you would like for the proceeds from your registration fee to go to our partners at common cathedral. If the registration cost would be a financial barrier for you, you are welcome to use Old South’s sponsor code: select “I have a promo code” and enter OSC26. If you’re unable to walk but would still like to support this important work, you can donate directly to the common cathedral’s Winter Walk team here: <https://tinyurl.com/commoncathedralWinterWalk>.

Once snow becomes compacted, or when snow partially melts then freezes again, it turns to ice. Not only does ice pose a safety hazard for pedestrians (and pets) but getting rid of ice causes its own set of problems.
